DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hirai (US20010019659)

Regarding claims 1 and 13 Hirai shows a

A data recording apparatus that records data in a file having a predetermined volume (p.3 ll. 57-58) comprising:

Size detecting means 30 in fig.6 for deciding when data is sequentially recorded in a file, whether the next unit of data to be recorded can be fully recorded in the same file or not

File creation controlling means 30 in fig. 6 for recording next data to be recorded in another file or stopping recording if the case where the result of the decision by the size detecting means 39 in fig.6shows recording is not possible

File writing means 37 shown in fig. 6 for writing data in a file according to the control form the file creation controlling means

Regarding claims 2,7 and 10 a data recording apparatus comprising;

Detecting means39 in fig. 6 for detecting a change of a property attached to the data

Fig. 6 shows file recording controlling means 34 for recording data on a plurality of files or stopping recording according to a change in property

File writing means 37 shown in fig. 6 for writing data in a file according to the control form the file creation controlling means

Regarding claims 3,8 and 11 a data recording apparatus wherein the property is image mode information

File recording controlling means 34, shown in fig. 6 records data by switching to another file as a file in which said data is to be recorded or stops recording when the content of said image mode information changes

Regarding claims 4, 9, and 12 a data recording apparatus where the property is voice mode information

File recording controlling means 34, shown in fig. 6 records data by switching to another file as a file in which said data is to be recorded or stops recording when the content of said voice mode information changes

Regarding claim 5 a data recording apparatus wherein the property is copyright information

File recording controlling means 34 shown in fig. 6 records data by switching to another file as a file in which said data is to be recorded or stops recording when the content of said copyright information changes

Regarding claim 6 Hirai shows a data recording apparatus wherein said copyright information means at least COPY FREE, COPY ONCE or COPY NEVER or COPY NO MORE of said data and in the case of COPY ONCE the copyright information is rewritten as a prohibition of reproduction before data recording (p.4 ll. 6-9).

Regarding claims 14 and 15, Hirai shows a medium carrying a program/ data to make a computer execute some of the functions of the data recording apparatus and an information package that is the program/data to make the computer execute the functions of the data recording apparatus in fig. 3 (p. 3 ll. 1-6)

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:
